

HEILKRAFT DER ALPEN

im Biosphärenpark
Salzburger Lungau

Co-funded by the European Union

Programme

Congress 29th to 31st May, Mauterndorf Castle / Lungau.
Free admission. Registration required.
Multilingual translation of programme items.

REGISTRATION

[www.biosphaerenpark.eu/
heilkraft-der-alpen-lungau](http://www.biosphaerenpark.eu/heilkraft-der-alpen-lungau)

FRIDAY

RECEPTION & OPENING

from 09:30 Reception & registration
Registration of participants
Market place Lungau: regional exhibitors and producers in the castle

10:30 Opening & welcome
Annemarie Weißenbacher, Rector, Paracelsus Medical Private University Salzburg
Markus Schaflechner, managing director Regional Association Lungau
Ulrike Schöllner, platform HEALING POWER OF THE ALPS
Arnulf Hartl, Paracelsus Medical Private University Salzburg
Greetings from the guests of honour

BIODIVERSITY AND HEALTH AS FIELDS OF TOURISM DEVELOPMENT IN ALPINE PROTECTED AREAS

MODERATION: Angelika Pehab, moderator, journalist and lecturer

11:00 KEYNOTE
National park tourist perspective
Barbara Pucker, managing director Hohe Tauern National Park Carinthia

11:45 PANEL DISCUSSION

From UNESCO Peaks to Healthy Minds: Tourism and Well-Being in the Belluno Dolomites National Park
Ennio Vigne, Dolomiti Bellunesi National Park
Sonia Anelli, Dolomiti Bellunesi National Park

Local resources for a healthy summer in the mountains – The Franz Fischer Hut’s recipe for success in the Riedingtal Nature Park
Tom Burger, Franz-Fischer hut

Nature-based health services and regional effects – results from the Interreg project WiWa2
Michael Bischof, Institute for Eco-Medicine, Paracelsus Medical Private University

Natural environment quality as a locational advantage: Why intact alpine landscapes help guests relax, inspire them, and keep them coming back
Christina Pichler, Paracelsus Medical Private University Salzburg

More than just beautiful scenery: Can biodiversity be valuable for tourism? Examples from the Hohe Tauern National Park in Carinthia
Marco Schiefer, Hohe Tauern National Park

13:00 - 14:30 LUNCH BREAK
with regional cuisine & market place Lungau

FRIDAY

WHEN VARIETY HEALS – BIODIVERSITY, HEALTH AND THE ALPINE HABITAT

- 14:30 KEYNOTE
The vital, bidirectional link between forest biodiversity and human health in the Alps
Laura Secco, University of Padova, Department of Land, Environment, Agriculture and Forestry (TESAF)
- 15:15 PANEL DISCUSSION
- Biodiversity and Health: a clinical trial in the Lungau
Barbara Fixl, Paracelsus Medical Private University Salzburg
- Biodiversity and local development in dialogue: natural heritage as a mean to increase social cohesion
Roberto Deon, LAG Prealpi e Dolomiti
- Alpine forest ecosystems and biodiversity dynamics
Thomas Compagnaro, University of Padova, Department of Land, Environment, Agriculture and Forestry (TESAF)
- Biodiversity in agriculture – seed production in alpine meadows
Mathias Löcker, Biohof „Sauschneider“
- Small-scale alpine farming & biodiversity in the Riedingtal Nature Park
Franz Gfrerer, managing director Riedingtal Nature Park
- ab 17:00 EVENING EVENT
dinner with regional delicacies in the castle tavern or, depending on the weather, in the castle courtyard

SATURDAY

HUMANS AND NATURE IN DIALOGUE

MODERATION: Angelika Pehab, moderator, journalist and lecturer

- 09:15 Welcome by the organisers
- 09:30 Rethinking health – the healing power of the Alps as a regulatory stimulus between matrix, microbiome and mitochondria
Ulrike Schöller, platform HEALING POWER OF THE ALPS
- Impulses for 10 years of HEALING POWER OF THE ALPS
Arnulf Hartl, Paracelsus Medical Private University Salzburg
- 10:00 KEYNOTE
From Wild Flowers to Healing Landscapes: How Biodiversity Shapes a Sustainable Destination – The Bohinj Model
Clement Langush, Bohinj Tourismus Slovenia
- Human relationship with nature
Aleš Zdešar, Triglav Nationalpark Slovenia
- 11:00 - 11:30 COFFEE BREAK

SATURDAY

IMMUNE IMBALANCE AS THE KEY TO REGENERATION

11:30 KEYNOTE
Why are we not getting healthy? The role of the immune system in chronic fatigue and infections
Dietmar Rösler, INUMED institute for für nutritional medicine
Petja Piehler, Specialist for internal medicine

12:45 - 13:45 LUNCH BREAK
with regional cuisine & market place Lungau

HEALING DIVERSITY IN LUNGAU: NUTRITION, NATURE & PRACTICAL KNOWLEDGE

13:45 PRACTICAL IMPULSES

The art of fermentation and its health benefits
Carina Hinterberger, Nutritional management essART

Lungau medicinal herb knowledge: the association & background information
Iris Zitz, association „Lungauer Heilkräuterwissen“

The Lungau Apiorium: Alpine beehive air as complementary therapy for our respiratory tract
Bernhard Moser, APIORIUM

Gratzgut – wellbeing for body and soul
Manfred König, Gratzgut

Artisanal raw milk cheese production at the Hiasnhof farm in Göriach
Klara Naynar, Hiasnhof

15:45 FAREWELL & INFORMATION ABOUT SUNDAY'S EXCURSIONS

SUNDAY

EXCURSION: BIODIVERSITY IN PRACTICE – EFFECTS ON NATURE AND HUMANS

Maximum number of participants: 25 people. Free participation. Travel and meals not included.

10:00 Biodiversity in forests
mit Barbara Fixl, Paracelsus Medical Private University Salzburg

10:00 Biodiversity in wetlands
mit Verena Gruber, Salzburger Lungau Biosphere Reserve

MARKET PLACE LUNGAU

Fri & Sat – Information stands & regional products at Mauterndorf Castle

Verein Heilkräuterwissen - traditional herbal products

Familie Schiefer OG - everything for the beehive

Büchergewölbe - book table

Gratzgut - everything about TEH

APIORIUM - information stand and much more

Subject to changes and errors.